FOREST FIRE WARDEN'S REPORT

Synopsis of Forest Fire Permit Law

(Chapter 191, Public Laws)

No person shall kindle a fire upon the land of another without permission from the owner, agent or caretaker thereof.

No person shall kindle a fire or burn any material in or near woodlands, pasture, brush, sprout, waste or cut over lands, or where the fire may be communicated to such land, except when the ground is covered with snow, without the written permission of the Forest Fire Warden or the presence of the warden or person designated to superintend such burning.

Any person, firm or corporation causing or kindling a fire without a permit, when a permit is required, and also any person, by whose negligence or the negligence of his agents any fire shall be caused, is liable to the town for all expenses incurred in attending or extinguishing such fire.

Every person who shall set fire on any land, that shall run upon the land of another, shall pay to the owner all damages done by such fire.

When permission has been obtained from the land owner, camp or cooking fires may be kindled without permission of the Forest Fire Warden (unless such permission is required by city or town), at suitable times and in suitable places where they will not endanger woodlands. Upon failure to totally extinguish such fires the parties responsible are subject to the same liabilities and penalties as are prescribed for other fires.

Penalty for kindling a fire without a permit, $200, or imprisonment not more than thirty days.

Penalty for kindling a fire willfully, or in a careless or imprudent manner, $500, or imprisonment not more than one year, or both.

The G. M. C. forest fire truck is loaded and ready for forest service.

Further details available upon request.

ALFRED M. PAYNE,
Forest Fire Warden.

MINOT-SLEEPER LIBRARY—REPORT OF TRUSTEES

The activities of Minot-Sleeper Library have been carried on for the past year with few, if any, changes.

The shortened schedule for the open hours of the library adopted last year are again in effect this year during the months when heat is required, returning to the three-day schedule through the summer. By means of this plan it has been possible to continue with the present system of oil heating and thus far avoid the necessity of conversion to other fuel. We are glad to report that this has not greatly affected the circulation of reading material, or the use of the reading room, indicating a willing cooperation on the part of the patrons of the library.

The library was again the grateful recipient of a gift of $200 from the Agnes M. Lindsay estate. While this and former gifts were given primarily for the purchase of books, such funds as were not needed immediately for this purpose have been placed in the Bristol Savings Bank and are carried on the books of the treasurer as the Agnes M. Lindsay Fund and may be used as the Trustees direct.

The usual number of new books has been added to the library and many more have been ordered but, due to the present shortage of printing material, publications are delayed. However, the book committee is endeavoring to furnish our readers with some of the latest and best fiction and non-fiction reading and solicits requests and suggestions for improving the usefulness of our facilities.

The Minnie Maria Day-Jackman Fund, the income from which supplies our reading room, is one which every year receives appreciative recognition from the Trustees and patrons of Minot-Sleeper Library. In September last year the investments of the fund were changed at the suggestion of Mr. Charles L. Jackman, the donor of the fund, and the treasurer's report shows an increase in the income over recent years. This will make possible some desirable additions to the reading room supplies and to our list of magazines. Some of the magazines may have duplicate subscriptions which will make available for circulation the current issues. The magazines now on the reading tables are Asia, Field and Stream, Boy's Life, American Girl, American Magazine, Atlantic Monthly, Child Life, Good Housekeeping, National Geographic, Time, Jack and Jill, Popular Science, Reader's Digest, Ladies' Home Journal, Cosmopolitan, Better Homes and Gardens, Modern Mechanics and Invention, Life, Harpers, Saturday Evening Post, Liberty, Christian Century.
